

PERSON SPECIFICATION
Lecturer in Film Practice
Vacancy Ref: A3374

Criteria	Essential or Desirable	Tested By *
A PhD in film studies, film practice/making or other relevant discipline or award within 12 months. Please give details of your PhD, stating awarding institution, date of award, discipline/specialism.	Essential	Application form / Supporting Statement
A publication or exhibiting record in film (or the capacity to develop this) indicating the potential to produce high quality publications (text or practice-based) consistent with inclusion in future Research Excellence Framework exercises. Please list your publications/screenings over the last 5 years.	Essential	Supporting Statement/ Interview
Good knowledge of the field of film-making and film studies	Essential	Supporting Statement/ Interview
Expertise in film production (camera and sound) and knowledge of other technical fields in addition to specific areas of interest relating to gender, sexuality, race and decolonisation.	Desirable	Supporting Statement/ Interview
The ability to teach at all levels of higher education, to choose appropriate delivery techniques and assessment methods, and to inspire students. Please state your teaching and supervisory experience.	Essential	Supporting Statement/ Interview
Excellent communication skills, and experience of working co-operatively, collaboratively and flexibly with colleagues.	Essential	Interview
Willingness and ability to participate in general administration of the Department, commensurate with seniority, and to work as part of a team.	Essential	Interview
Experience of contributing to the development of teaching in film and film studies (eg module design, curriculum development) in consultation with colleagues and employers.	Desirable	Interview
Demonstrate success in attracting external research funding and/or having received positive feedback from an independent source on an application for external research funding	Desirable	Supporting statement/Interview
Please write a statement in support of your application, including your rationale for applying for this post and how your research fits with the culture of the Department. (max 500 words)	Essential	Supporting Statement

*

- Application Form – assessed against the application form, curriculum vitae and letter of support. Applicants will not be asked to answer with a specific supporting statement. Normally used to evaluate factual evidence eg award of a qualification. Will be “scored” as part of the shortlisting process.
- Supporting Statements - applicants are asked to provide a statement to demonstrate how they meet the criteria. The response will be “scored” as part of the shortlisting process.
- Interview – assessed during the interview process by either competency-based interview questions, tests or presentation etc

Updated 23.10.19
Revised 15.05.2021